

Storm Lake Area UU News – December 12, 2007

Season's Greetings!

Last night I helped with a Tour of Christmas Lights for seniors in Storm Lake. Three mini-buses of elderly folks who wouldn't have been able to make this trek on their own oohed and ahhed at the dazzling displays of lights in trees, in bushes and on rooftops, white reindeer grazing on lawns alongside puffed up Santas and snowmen. There were plenty of traditional nativity scenes. I only hope that one day when I'm much older and unable to drive, there will be a patient, caring community leader to organize such an opportunity for me. What started as a favor to a friend became a lesson for me in humility.

Let's celebrate the season together!

Please join us this Sunday for what has become an annual tradition in our congregation – a holiday pot luck on the third Sunday in December. In lieu of a traditional service at BVU, we will enjoy the hospitality of the Cantrell-Paulson family. Karen Swinger will lead us in holiday caroling. It will be a good time!
