

Storm Lake Area UU News – February 28, 2008

If you're concerned that the war in Iraq has drained this nation's resources while leaving a humanitarian crisis there and needs at home unmet, this Sunday Gregg Bieber will help illuminate these issues through the annual Justice Sunday program provided by the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee. For a preview of this program and their resources, visit the UUSC website. "Official" UU Justice Sunday is March 30.

Following up on Karen Swinger's excellent service on prayer on 2/27, you may want to read an article from the Spring issue of UU World, "Praying as Unitarian Universalists" here: <http://www.uuworld.org/spirit/articles/90593.shtml>.

Kudos

to those who prepared and served the Stone Soup meal at the Elks Lodge last Sunday. All went well and there was a good, appreciative crowd. Special thanks to Gene Lindgren who took on the important task of making the chili. Thank you one and all.

Congregation Notes

A Very Happy Birthday to Julie Baker on March 1, Ginger Walker March 4, Cole Vietor March 12. Happy Anniversary to Korey Cantrell and Jon Paulson on March 27.

Board Notes

There will be three openings on the Board of Trustees in May, one one-year term due to board member Gregg Bieber leaving us for grad school, and two two-year terms. Our Nominating Committee has been activated, ably led by Korey Cantrell. Please consider volunteering, and you don't have to wait to be asked! There's nothing wrong with nominating yourself! Serving on the board requires a modest time commitment. Board meetings are enjoyable, and you can influence the future of this dynamic, emerging congregation.
